“We are feeling highly honored of having the chance to step in such an important “place” as the Religion Today Filmfestival, synergising from the very beginning in any and every possible way. I hold the view that this special occasion will pay a great homage to the awardees, a golden opportunity, to become apparent and appreciated in a real Cinema, after the experience with us, online, last June. Meanwhile, registering for the LBLFF, 2nd Edition, have just been opening, while the team is busy in organising the 5th International Afterlife Conference “Andare Oltre. Uniti nella Luce”, taking place at Borgaro Torinese from Friday, October 8, up to Sunday October 10, keeping to the point of Life Beyond Life”, countersigning Annunziato Gentiluomo.
